For purposes of general explanation only, the University provides the following (for further information, consult your attorney):

Tenancy by the entirety. As recognized in AS 34.15.110(b) and .140, a form of ownership created between a husband and wife, by which together they hold title to the property with right of survivorship, so that upon the death of either, the survivor automatically acquires title to the share of the deceased spouse.

Tenancy in common. As recognized in AS 34.15.110(a) and .140(c), a form of ownership by two or more persons whereby each person holds an undivided interest in the property. Unlike a tenancy by the entirety, the interest of a tenant in common does not terminate upon his or her death (i.e., there is no right of survivorship) and instead passes to his or her estate or heirs.

Note: Joint tenancy has been abolished by AS 34.15.130. Thus the University cannot convey property in a joint tenancy.
